

Submitter: Justin Caouette

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2574

As a public health expert, I fully support this bill. Removing barriers to treatment for HIV exposure is a vital step toward reducing health disparities in LGBTQ populations. This is especially true in rural areas, where many men who have sex with men remain underserved in the healthcare system.