

Submitter: Megan Gustafson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2994

It's imperative that children receive access to critical audiology services and equipment. I support this bill because early and thorough intervention and support is necessary for children to reach their full learning potential.