

Submitter: Linden J

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB544

Single use plastics are shameful. Some businesses have voluntarily replaced them with better alternatives, but they are in a tiny minority. It should be regulated and considered common sense business practice. Landfills are overflowing with items that won't breakdown for thousands or millions of years. Who in good conscious can condone their continued use? Ban them!