Measure: HB2601

To House committee

OH HONEY HUSH !

SERIOUSLY..... this Bill looks like a temper tantrum, sponsored by 2yr olds :)

PERS is in trouble and the debt is over $24 Billion in the hole...

I have a friend that worked in a SEIU job... back in the 90's they were matching pay to the sum of 13%....

Some years dividends were met at 7% and the rest of the 13% went on the ole credit card of Oregon. (if I explained that right).

I have no doubt one day Oregon debt will force the Legislature to turn against Sustained harvest of timber, if it even exists...

Because the cost of wildfire fighting is so costly, that it will seem sensible to cut every tree to reduce fires and fund PERS so a Political Party can stay in power.

We have a Bill this session to require Police go to school 2 more years....

Maybe in 2 yrs we should force legislators to take 2 yrs of secondary college classes to understand basic finance and how to over come social disorder in the streets of Portland and maintain a healthy private sector.

Seriously I have to track this Bill to see what happens next.

(sorry if you think i am toxic, I just feel like i am watching that TV show called "Jackass"... the one where people laugh at people doing unexplainable stupid things).

Please don't vote for this legislation..
