

Submitter: James Hatcher

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB90

I live in douglas county, our timber is a renewable resource. I strongly believe the tight restrictions on public land logging is very harmful to the local and state economy. With proper and intelligent management, the overall benefits of increased logging would not only curtail tax increases but create lower taxes, more jobs and revenue and not effect the timber inventory.