

Submitter: Philip Pelkey

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2697

Every single person will need health care at some point in their life. We need to make sure providers are able to work safely, effectively, and at a rate they can sustain. Maintaining adequate staffing is essential to that goal.