

Submitter: Marika Zimmerly-Beck

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2697

Safe staffing levels are so important for patient outcomes. If your nurse has too many patients they will not be able to safely care for you. Nurses with too many patients will burn out faster and we will lose talented nurses from the field.