

Submitter: Justin Miller

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB3

I believe it is important that Oregon's youth have access to real world skills in their curriculum. Resume writing, job interview practice, and many of the other potential opportunities offered with this bill will have a direct affect on our state's equity and help to level the financial playing field for learners from lower income families.