

Submitter: MaLeah Haugen

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB3

As an educator in high school, I am seeing that the traditional coursework for students is NOT preparing them for a realistic life outside of school. The number of households living in poverty or lack higher education is vastly increasing. I believe real-life applicable skills is more beneficial to help future generations change the narrative.