

Submitter: Michael James

On Behalf
Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Ways and Means Subcommittee On Transportation and Economic Development

Measure: SB5511

The production of additional housing is critical to reduce unsheltered homelessness, rehouse people experiencing homelessness, and increase homeownership.

None of these plans will be successful, however, as long as our urban growth boundaries needlessly restrict where we can build this housing.