The Portland Raging Grannies have written two songs as testimony. I'm sending the lyrics in this message and will submit video testimony at a later date.

FACTORY FARMS

Tune: Old McDonald Natalie Reich and Susan Hanson

Mega dairies really stink
They pollute our earth
Manure and nitrates get in the ground
And ruin the water we drink

[Chorus (to the moo moo beat)]
Their waste goes into huge cesspools
Allowing this would make you fools

Corporations care about wealth
Not about our health

Mega dairies emit more methane
Than the smaller farms
Methane causes climate change
And creatures all are harmed

With a moo moo here and a gag gag there
Don't support them; don't you dare!

Corporations care about wealth
Not about our health

Corporate mega dairies become rich
While they destroy small farms
Their poisons get into the rivers
Killing off our fish

Chorus
With a moo moo here and a gag gag there
Don't support them don't you dare!

Mega Dairies must be banned
STOP THIS CRIMINAL HARM!

HOME ON THE RANGE FOR CHICKENS
Natalie Reich and Susan Hanson

Oh – it's too sad to see
Chickens that are not free
They're locked up sometimes six to a cage
They can't even flap
And their bones sometimes snap
A nightmare for them, you and me!

Chorus (i.e. home, home, on the range)

Oh – give me a patch
Where just a few chickens can scratch
Where they aren't confined
They're in nature sublime
And the space they have helps them to thrive.
