

Submitter: Roberta Cade

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB854

Young people are our future. Youth today face a worsening climate crisis. Students and educators from around Oregon are calling for K-12 climate education that will inform young people about local, national and global climate challenges, and prepare them to work toward solutions. Let's support our students and teachers.