

Submitter: Jan Waitt

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB854

Since climate change is the most important world-wide issue of our times, it seems obvious that all students need instruction on the causes, affects, and mitigation efforts. Up-coming students will be the ones to increase mitigation. They should know the facts. I believe most science teachers are already including "climate change' lessons. Jan Waitt