

Submitter: Serena pedersen

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB854

Good day,

Climate change is not happening, it has been brought into being by persons making big profits and not studying the actual weather and climates, etc. Hence the time and energy being used for this propaganda should not occur. However the schools should begin to educate kids so that they can be proud and are able to read and write.