

I have been following the benefits of ranked choice voting for a while, and as a young home owner and resident in Eugene I'm thrilled that this is a possibility. The implementation of ranked choice voting would encourage more people, who otherwise feel like they are throwing away their vote, to participate.