

Submitter: Shauna McKain-Storey

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB871

It is my understanding that this bill aims to increase energy efficiency and climate resilience in state buildings, which I fully support. It is in the construction of state buildings that Oregon legislators have the most influence, and I believe that that power should be used both to improve public buildings, especially schools, and to lead by example.