

Submitter: Chris Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB1051

The Portland region has worked too hard to come up with a system of urban and rural reserves to blow up those agreements with ad hoc siting. Development should be directed to existing UGB areas with urban services, or if necessary to urban reserve areas with a plan for how urban services can be extended.