

Submitter: Mac Jackson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

Adolescence is a period of trial and experimentation, and adolescents (teenagers) should not be allowed make life changing decisions during this period of experimentation. Their parents should be involved in any important decisions and provide guidance. This provides a healthy, safe and natural path to adulthood.