

Submitter: Emelia Reardon

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2005

Privately made firearms have always been legal in Oregon and should remain legal. People paid for the parts and handcrafted the guns. It could have been a project between a parent and their child that was intended to create lasting memories, teach their children the beauty of the craftsmanship, and pass them on for generations to come.