

Submitter: Brenda Clarke

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

I think that any type of treatments for gender change can be physically and mentally unhealthy for the person involved. The insurance companies should not be paying for such extreme changes this is against God's will. Many kids have gotten older and had major regrets and there are now lawsuits. This should not be covered through healthcare.