

Submitter: Madeleine Bucci

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2007

Local governments should have the ability to keep guns out of sensitive places such as courthouses and government buildings. No one should ever be required by a state to allow guns on their premises. Courthouses and government buildings are targets for politically motivated violence. It's just common sense. People need to feel safe.