

Submitter: Michael Crawford

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB3390

Please oppose this bill. The trapping of furbearers, which are a renewable resource the same as timber, is important to many entities in Oregon. It keeps animal populations in balance by minimizing disease, reducing damage caused to farmers and provides an eco-friendly material that is used for clothing.