

Submitter: Jim Soares

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB3390

All furbearers are a resource which is renewable on a yearly basis. Banning the use of fur would not stop the necessity to control wildlife populations causing damage. It would only ban the use of a renewable resource and result in that resource being wasted and not be turned into a valuable commodity.