

Submitter: David Morris
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB2007

Rather than limiting my constitutional right to bare arms, why are we not creating laws to more easily prosecute the people that are committing violence with guns. The people that commit violence with a gun do not value the laws to start with, this will do nothing to curb violence in the inner city. The logic that we will limit gun rights for citizens in rural communities in order to stop violence in Portland is asinine. Please start holding people responsible for their actions.