

Submitter: Alex Pape

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

I firmly believe that the constitution protects those under 21 as much as those over 21. A person 18 years old can fight for his country, and has rights under the constitution the same as everyone else. This bill does nothing to combat violence, won't make anyone safer, and is clearly unconstitutional.