Submitter:	Rain Miller
On Behalf Of:
Committee:	House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care
Measure:	HB3090

We, as adults, should have the option to consume substances as we see fit. If we find flavors to be a better option, there is no actual reason as to why we shouldn't be able to. No other substance that teenagers abuse are this regulated, including alcohol (surprise they're flavored too).