Measure: HB2007

This bill is also unconstitutional, my right shall not be infringed upon. Not only is it my right, but I also earned that right by being a law-abiding citizen and by receiving my CHL. Taking guns away from the law-abiding citizen does nothing to stop the criminals. Criminals wouldn't be criminals if they abided the law. These bills won't change anything but make the law-abiding citizens criminals, and the criminals STILL criminals. It is already illegal for a felon to possess a firearm but yet they still get their hands on them. No laws will stop evil. Evil is everywhere, the only thing that will stop evil from expanding deeper is fearing a good man/woman willing to stop that evil. Guns are not evil, high capacity magazines are not evil, people are evil. If every criminal with intent to harm knew that there were many good men/women that had a legally concealed firearm ready to protect their God-given right to LIVE, and to protect their loved ones and other fellow law-abiding Americans... that evil would change its mind.
