

Submitter: Alex Fosses
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB2006

I believe that if an 18yr. old can die for their country, that person is old enough to own a gun. With gun ownership comes gun safty responsibility. If they have been raised by parents that have taught them how to handle a gun, that's good. If not then a safety course would be a good envestment...