

Submitter: Becky Tompkins

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

When my children were young they were given guns as gifts from their father and grandfather. They have spent many years hunting and making memories. Not once has that gun been used for a crime. When you raise them to respect the right to hold and use a gun properly they can be in the hands of someone under 21 safely.