

Submitter: Matthew Robertson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2005

Current federal regulations already cover this issue, further manufacturing an "undetectable" firearm is loosely defined and as written would be a restriction on the lawful ability for a person to manufacture their own firearm. This is government overreach