

Submitter: Alex Roth

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure: HB2895

I fully support this bill! As a school psychologist I experience directly the impact of underfunded schools and especially underfunded special education. Our special educators are doing amazing work with not enough resources and not enough pay, which means our most vulnerable students are not getting the support they need.