

Submitter: Daniel Day

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

This bill is harassment of minors currently engaged in legal activities and does not address the real problem of juvenile and adult delinquents who remain unpunished for their crimes by an overly lenient prosecutor's office. It is redundant with a current, though due for cancellation through judicial review because of its unconstitutionality, executive order by Pres. Biden.