

Submitter: Todd Bauer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2007

I personally feel that if the you've passed government background checks and granted a concealed weapons permit or a firearm that was purchased legally you should be able to carry it anywhere you choose to protect yourself and others around you.