

Submitter: Steven Poor

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2005

I oppose this on the grounds that it ignores the mental health and criminal aspects of gun crimes. I cannot take your attempts to limit freedoms seriously if they consistently fail to address the actual root of the problem: lack of mental health services for those in need, and an unwillingness to pursue the current laws against criminals.