

Submitter: Tim Buckendahl

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB3390

This is a very bad thing to do in a great state! The alternative to real fur is Faux fur which is made from petroleum products and will not decompose in a landfill, also will require more drilling for oil so the fake garments and other items will be made as a non renewable resource such as real fur.