The amendment to the bill to study gun violence is absurd. The attempt to codify Measure 114 into law in advance of the court's decision is, in itself, unlawful. In addition, the ridiculously race conscious writers of this amendment should be reprimanded for their efforts to once again, divide the population by race. There is absolutely no reason that anyone should know the race ratios of gun owners, nor should 'equity' have anything to do with a gun purchase. Please oppose this bill.
