I strongly oppose this bill. Making these items illegal will not, as you say "curb gun violence" or have an affect on gun violence in any way. What next? Banning those ten round magazines and reducing mag capacity to 5. Whats after that? Banning lever guns because it is a repeater rifle? A gun or a magazine (no matter the size and even a cartridge for that matter) are inanimate objects. They pose no threat to anyone except when they are in the hands of a criminal who has intent to use them in a way that violates existing law.

If only you would spend more time enforcing existing laws, and less time figuring out how to criminalize those of us who are responsible gun owners, perhaps you might make a dent in crime. But hey, we all know what you are about.
