

Submitter: Gina Tallerino
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary
Measure: SB348

I implore you, all lawmakers, to verse yourselves on our laws. Stop attempting to make illegal laws to promote political narratives. We have tired of this, and many of you. I spurn your attempts to carve away at our rights. Begin to understand your role as public servants, not as political tyrants. In the words of Chief Justice Marshall, of the US Supreme Court “A Law repugnant to the Constitution is void.”

Here’s the second amendment: taken from The Constitution: A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

SHALL

Auxiliary Verb: As used in statutes and similar instruments, this word is generally imperative or mandatory; (in laws, directives, etc.) must; is or are obliged to

NOT

Adverb: Used to express negation, denial, refusal, or prohibition

BE

Verb: To take place; happen; occur

INFRINGED

Adjective: Violated, transgressed, or encroached upon, as a regulation, restriction, or right
