Measure: SB348

After a long and honorable career in the military I can undisputedly say that guns have one purpose, to kill something. That's it, their only purpose is death. Do you want to live in a society that glorifies guns? Killing people? Killing children? Go look at statistics. The leading cause of death for children in the US for 2020 was firearms. Guns provide no value in modern society. I am strongly in favor of any legislation that provides checks and balances for the menace in our society called guns.
