

Submitter: John Marshall
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Education
Measure: HB3198

When I got my teaching license and starting working in special education, I learned how important reading is in opening a child to the possibilities available to us in this world. Teachers do so much, and supporting them in supporting children is critical.