

I oppose this bill on so many levels and can't believe it is even something being talked about. This city, this state are struggling to get a handle on the homeless, mental health, and addiction problem and allowing camping to become legal anywhere is truly outrageous. Do better Oregon.