The homeless situation in correlation with crime, and the open drug use is literally killing this city. I run a small business, and do a lot of driving throughout the metropolitan area.

What I witness on almost a daily basis is appalling...This used to be a safe and thriving city, and a great place to raise a family; Now even the progressive-liberals don't feel safe for themselves, or their family, and are, and have been leaving in droves. What does that tell you? I'll tell you what it says; The city is dying...If nothing is done to stop this madness; Soon, It'll be to late.
