

Submitter: Roderick Marshall

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure: SB422

Lane spitting is a safe and effective way for motorcyclists to get around stopped traffic. Sitting in standstill traffic is dangerous for those on motorcycles plus a lot of bikes are air cooled and will overheat without the air flow. Let's not forget the carbon impact from motorcycles needlessly idling when they can filter through traffic and get to their destination faster.