

Submitter: roger irvin

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HB3414

This measure does much to undermine the efforts of many communities to improve livability and enhance social, environmental, and historical values that are often under threat by unregulated development. There is little evidence that this approach will improve affordability or address homelessness in a significant way.