

Submitter: Jeff Jassmond

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HB3414

Rolling back environmental protections without requiring developers demonstrate proof that a variance will benefit the community is the wrong direction. This would undermine land use planning that makes Oregon special without doing anything to ensure the sacrifice would benefit the community. Only developers are sure to benefit.