

Submitter: Delores Porch

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure: HB3382

When the state allows certain jurisdictions to disregard local and state laws, why have laws? Dredging rivers can be detrimental to the river, estuary, nearby environment and the wildlife found there. Destroying habitat can be an economical disaster. This bill is bad all around.