

Submitter: Holly Brown
On Behalf Of: AV chapter Portland
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB3214

I support this bill! During the off-season, animals used in circuses may be housed in small traveling crates. Such confinement has harmful psychological effects on them. These effects are often indicated by unnatural behavior such as repeated swaying, and pacing.