

Submitter: Mike Woodley

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB611

I submitted an earlier response. One more thought. Portland passed an inclusionary zoning law a few years ago. Developers rushed to get their building permits filed prior to the Sturart date of the law. Since that date new apartment development has fallen below the need for new rental inventory. This new bill will have the same result.