

Submitter: Sitka Chiu

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB611

The cost of housing continues to rise, and tenants often cause damage before vacating the property. As a result, landlords are unable to bear the cost of repairs, insurance, and property taxes, which increase every year. How can landlords survive this economic strain?