

Submitter:               suzanne olvey

On Behalf Of:

Committee:             Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure:                SB611

residents are still getting back on our feet during a global pandemic. with rent skyrocketing and wages still low/unmoving, this will directly affect low income and BIPOC residents and families. if this doesn't pass it will directly contribute to the number of people living outside in the greater portland area.